

Brand Photography Guidelines

VERSION – 02 JAN 2025

WorldFirst

Real Business Stories

Crafting a visual story that's undeniably WorldFirst.

Reflecting the real experiences, challenges, and triumphs faced by business owners every day.

---

① People and Interactions

---

② Business in Action

---

③ Local Vibrancy

---

④ Business Diversity

---

⑤ Moments of Connection

---

⑥ Hero the WorldFirst Red

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

People and Interactions

Show Authenticity

- Feature real people with genuine expressions and natural poses that exude positive energy.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

People and Interactions

Lighting and Tonal Consistency

- Use warm, natural lighting to create an inviting atmosphere.
- Avoid high-contrast or overly saturated tones. Aim for warm hues.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Business in Action

Showcase Everyday Drive and Passion

- Capture relatable, everyday business operations in authentic environments.
- Consider focusing on moments such as packing, inventory checks, stock replenishment, and deliveries.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Business in Action

Balance Scale with Detail

- Incorporate zoomed-out shots that capture the scale and reach, along with nuances of success and daily challenges.
- Use perspective and interesting crops to create dynamic shots of tasks.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Local Vibrancy

Celebrate Local Identity

- Showcase our global presence through local markets and/or iconic landmarks.
- Incorporate details like traditional attire, local craftsmanship, and natural landscapes to reflect each region's unique identity.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Local Vibrancy

Infuse Cultural Context

- Highlight specific crafts and trades tied to the local culture.
- Situate businesses in familiar, bustling settings to emphasise authenticity and relevance.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Business Diversity

The World of Everyday Business

Represent the wide spectrum of businesses we serve:

- Small trading shops and generational businesses connecting globally
- E-commerce merchants both big and small
- International agencies and enterprises expanding their reach

• REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Business Diversity

---

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Moments of Connection

Building Genuine Relationships

- Showcase authentic interactions, from team collaboration to meaningful customer exchanges.
- Convey empathy through guiding gestures, shared smiles or engaged dialogue.

- REAL BUSINESS STORIES

Hero the WorldFirst Red

A Distinct Brand Signature

- Our flagship colour establishes our unique identity and presence.
- Integrated thoughtfully, it becomes a subtle visual cue that unites our brand story.
- Consider this direction when using a photo as a key visual.

Building a strong and distinctive brand is a collaborative effort. Feel free reach out to our WorldFirst Global Brand Team if you require assistance or ideas on improving the guide.

www.worldfirst.com

© WORLDFIRST

As future decisions are made about brand usage, these guidelines will evolve. Please be sure to access the latest version of this Brand Photography Guidelines.

VERSION – 02 JAN 2025